P.C. :

. In our opinion, this is a frivolous Petition. The concerned authorities should examine as to how such Petitions are filed and take steps accordingly.

2. In the instant case, the Tribunal has not passed any order. All that it has stated is that the Commissioner to consider the applicants representation for regularization and dispose of the same by a speaking order. The petitioners, if aggrieved, can have their grievance placed before the Commissioner who, in fact, is an authority under the respondents.

3. For the aforesaid reasons, no interference. Petition rejected.
